How has the fund performed?

This section tells you how this class of the fund has performed over the past 9 years. Returns are after expenses have been deducted. These expenses reduce the class' returns.

It's important to note that this doesn't tell you how the class will perform in the future. Also, your actual after-tax return will depend on your personal tax situation.

Average return

As at September 30, 2012, a person who invested $1,000 in this class of the fund since its inception now has $1,635. This works out to an annual compound return of 5.1%.

Year-by-year returns

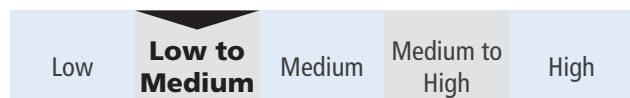

This chart shows how the class has performed in each of the past 9 completed calendar years. The class dropped in value in 2 of the 9 years.

How risky is it?

When you invest in a fund, the value of your investment can go down as well as up. BMO Nesbitt Burns Inc. has rated this fund's risk as Low to Medium.

For a description of the specific risks of this fund, see the simplified prospectus offering this class of units of the fund.

Who is this fund for?

- The fund may be a suitable investment for investors looking for a well diversified mix of equities and fixed income securities in a single mutual fund.
- The fund may be a suitable investment for investors who can accept low to medium investment risk (i.e. you are willing to accept some fluctuations in the market value of your investment) and who have a medium to long-term investment horizon (five years or longer).

Before you invest in any fund, you should consider how it would work with your other investments and your tolerance for risk.

Are there any guarantees?

Like most mutual funds, this fund doesn't have any guarantees. You may not get back the amount of money you invest.

A word about tax

Depending on tax rules and tax rates that apply to you and the fund, you may have to pay tax on your portion of the fund's earnings and gains, whether paid out to you in cash or reinvested in the fund. Also, you may have to pay tax on any gains you realize when you redeem or sell your investment in the fund. However, if you hold your investment in a registered account such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan or a Tax-Free Savings Account, generally you will not have to pay tax on earnings or gains that are held in a registered account.

How much does it cost?

The following section describes the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell Class A units of the fund.

The fund has other classes of units. The fees and expenses are different for each class. You should ask about other classes of units that may be suitable for you.

1. Sales charges

Sales charge option	What you pay		How it works
	in per cent (%)	in dollars ($)
Initial sales charge	0-4%	$0 to $40 on every $1,000 you buy	The initial sales charge is negotiated between you and your investment adviser. The initial sales charge is deducted from your gross purchase amount and paid to your investment adviser.

2. Fund expenses

You don't pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the returns of this class of the fund.

As of June 30, 2012, the Class A expenses of the fund were 1.89% of its value. This equals $19 for every $1,000 invested.

Trailing commission

BMO Nesbitt Burns Inc. pays your dealer a trailing commission for as long as you own the fund. It is for the services and advice about the fund your dealer provides to you. Your dealer may pay part of the trailing commission to your investment adviser. The trailing commission is paid out of the management fee.

Sales charge trailing commission - up to 1.00% of the value of your investment each year. This equals up to $10 each year for every $1,000 invested.

3. Other fees

You may have to pay other fees when you buy, hold, sell or switch units of the fund.

Fee

What you pay

Short-term trading fee

Up to 2% of the amount that you redeem or switch if you buy or switch and then redeem or switch units of the fund within 30 days of purchasing or switching them. This penalty will be paid directly to the fund out of redemption proceeds.

Switch fee

A fixed charge in an amount determined by your investment adviser may apply on switches. The amount of these fees should be discussed with your investment adviser at the time of a purchase or switch and when you establish an account or registered tax plan.

What if I change my mind?

Under securities law in some provinces and territories, you have the right to:

- withdraw from an agreement to buy mutual fund units or shares within two business days after you receive a simplified prospectus, or
- cancel your purchase within 48 hours after you receive confirmation of the purchase.

In some provinces and territories, you also have the right to cancel a purchase, or in some jurisdictions, claim damages, if the simplified prospectus, annual information form or financial statements contain a misrepresentation. You must act within the time limit set by the securities law in your province or territory.

For more information, see the securities law of your province or territory or ask a lawyer.
