How risky is it?

The value of the fund can go down as well as up. You could lose money.

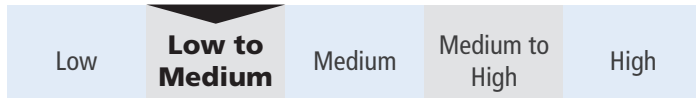

One way to gauge risk is to look at how much a fund's returns change over time. This is called "volatility".

In general, funds with higher volatility will have returns that change more over time. They typically have a greater chance of losing money and may have a greater chance of higher returns. Funds with lower volatility tend to have returns that change less over time. They typically have lower returns and may have a lower chance of losing money.

Risk rating

BMO Investments Inc. has rated the volatility of this fund as low to medium.

This rating is based on how much the fund's returns have changed from year to year. It doesn't tell you how volatile the fund will be in the future. The rating can change over time. A fund with a low risk rating can still lose money.

For more information about the risk rating and specific risks that can affect the fund's returns, see the "What are the risks of investing in a mutual fund?" section of the fund's simplified prospectus.

No guarantees

Like most mutual funds, this fund doesn't have any guarantees. You may not get back the amount of money you invest.

How has the fund performed?

This section tells you how Advisor Series units of the fund have performed since inception. Returns are after expenses have been deducted. These expenses reduce the series' returns.

Year-by-year returns

The year-by-year returns are not available for Advisor Series as it has not been distributed to the public under a simplified prospectus for a full calendar year.

Best and worst 3-month returns

The best and worst 3-month returns are not available for Advisor Series as it has not been distributed to the public under a simplified prospectus for a full calendar year.

Average return

The average return is not available for Advisor Series as it has not been distributed to the public under a simplified prospectus for 12 consecutive months.

Who is this fund for?

Consider this fund if:

- you want the opportunity for capital appreciation over the long term;
- you want monthly distributions;
- you are seeking an attractive risk-adjusted rate of return;
- you are comfortable with low to medium investment risk (i.e., you are willing to accept some fluctuations in the market value of your investment).

A word about tax

In general, you'll have to pay income tax on any money you make on a fund. How much you pay depends on the tax laws where you live and whether or not you hold the fund in a registered plan such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan or a Tax-Free Savings Account.

Keep in mind that if you hold your fund in a non-registered account, fund distributions are included in your taxable income, whether you get them in cash or have them reinvested.

How much does it cost?

The following tables show the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell Advisor Series units of the fund. The fees and expenses, including any commissions, can vary among series of a fund and among funds. Higher commissions can influence representatives to recommend one investment over another. Ask about other funds and investments that may be suitable for you at a lower cost.

More about the trailing commission

The trailing commission is an ongoing commission. It is paid for as long as you own the fund. It is for the services and/or advice that your representative and/or their firm provide to you. BMO Investments Inc. pays the trailing commission to your representative's firm. It is paid from the fund's management fee and is based on the value of your investment. The rate depends on the sales charge option you choose.

Sales Charge Trailing Commission - 1.00% of the value of your investment each year. This equals $10.00 each year for every $1,000 invested.
